AEgis Technologies Becomes Official DoD Reseller of Modest3D Software Suite

Halifax, Nova Scotia (November 18, 2016) - Modest Tree announced today that AEgis Technologies has become the exclusive United States Department of Defense distributor of the award winning eLearning software suite, Modest3D.

"After careful examination of distributor partnerships, we have chosen AEgis as our reseller to the Department of Defense. AEgis has an extensive offering of top quality 3D models for military and civil uses, and has a strong history in the military marketplace," said Sam Sannandeji, CEO of Modest Tree.

The Modest3D eLearning software, which includes Modest3D Editor and Modest3D Explorer, offers the ability to rapidly create a wide variety of 3D interactive training applications, including 3D classroom demonstrations, virtual maintenance trainers and advanced interactive game-based training. The Modest3D suite was selected by the Canadian Military to develop in-house training products for the Army, Navy, and Air Force.

"We knew we needed prominent partner in the United States to assist in serving our American DoD clients. AEgis has the reputation and experience working with the Department of Defense and is a leader in innovative training technologies," said Sam Sannandeji.

Jenna Tuck, AEgis Technologies Business Development, added, "Having worked with Modest Tree software in the past, we are very familiar with the impressive capability set the software suite has to offer, and we are proud to be working with Modest Tree as their exclusive DoD reseller. We are looking forward to combining our extensive presence in the US marketplace, with Modest Tree's innovative products so that we may better serve the US DoD and their Mission."
