AEgis Sponsors Special Olympics Track & Field Event

Huntsville, Alabama (October 6, 2011) - AEgis Technologies is the lead sponsor for the Special Olympics Track & Field event which will take place on October 25 (rain date October 27) at Milton Frank Stadium in Huntsville. The games are from 8:30 am-1:30 pm.

More than 300 athletes from Madison City Schools, Madison County Schools, Huntsville City Schools and the Opportunity Center will take part in running and standing long jump, softball throw, 20 meter walk, 100 meter dash, 50 meter dash, 200 meter run, shotput, 50 meter assisted walk and wheelchair-pushed. The day will consist of an opening ceremony, track and field games and an award ceremony where each athlete receives a ribbon. More than 600 volunteers, including AEgis employees and family members, will be assisting with the event.

"AEgis Technologies has been blessed to be a part of the Huntsville-Madison County community. We feel an obligation to pay it forward and were excited to be asked to sponsor the Special Olympics Track & Field event," said Steve Hill, AEgis President and CEO. "It is an honor and privilege to support these athletes as we celebrate their ability to overcome challenges and compete. We appreciate the many volunteers and invite everyone from our community to come out, get involved and cheer at the games."

Co-sponsored by the Joseph P. Kennedy, Jr., Foundation, Special Olympics is an athletic and recreational program for people aged 8 to 65 with physical and mental disabilities. Special Olympics offers a variety of events with Track and Field having the most athletes participating. This is the 43rd year for these events.
